Day 12 of 365

Week 2 – Children of faith

Its always been about faith, from Adam being told not to eat the forbidden fruit, to Abraham being told to lay his only son on the altar, to Jesus carrying our cross, to the day we accept Him as Lord and savior, is about faith. You shall know the truth and the truth shall set you free! If you have faith in the truth then rejoice daily, the Truth will never leave you, He will never forsake you, and He will be your advocate with the Father!

Day 12 – faith that moves mountains

And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you. (Matthew Chapter 17 verse 20 KJV)

Its sad to see those who seek every reason to doubt the truth of the Gospel, they look for fault in every word of the Bible and they desperately seek to disprove something that cannot be disproved. The truth is that in Jesus we have a freedom and a wonderful love that the world cannot and will not ever understand, in Christ we have a strength that is this: if you believe it with childlike faith and trust in the Lord to deliver, He will deliver! The power of the Lord is this: He is the creator not limited by boundaries or laws or by the "impossibilities" of men! The Lord Jesus reminds us that if we truly have the faith of a mustard seed and believe in Him and in His power and grace with all our hearts that He can make anything happen!

If I told you to walk over and lift up your car chances are you'd probably look at me and say "do you know how much that thing weighs?" Then if I told you that your child was trapped under the tire and the car was crushing them chances are you would run to that same car and with all your might and everything you can muster you would desperately lift the car off your loved child. Our faith in Christ must be the same way, it must be desperate, it must be instant, we must turn to Him knowing He is not only capable but willing, He gives us the strength and wisdom, the peace and the courage, in Jesus Christ we are capable of doing mighty things and in His love we are ensured that through faith we are justified freely. As you enter day 12 of the 365 day devotion I wonder: do you have trust that God is who He says He is? Pray for the wisdom and understanding that God is truly the God of salvation, of power, and that He will always be true to His word.

Today's prayer:

Today pray the Lord would increase your wisdom. Pray He would give you the faith to do what He has called you to do in your life. Pray the Lord would increase your ability to trust in Him and pray the Lord would open your heart to His great love. Pray the Father would heal your doubt and drive away the darkness. Pray He would continue to give you victory through Jesus Christ.
